BRIDGING INTERCULTURAL DIVIDES IN A DIGITALLY INTERCONNECTED WORLD

We are excited to announce the 1st joint conference of the International Academy for Intercultural Research (IAIR) and the International Association for Cross-cultural Psychology (IACCP), is quickly approaching! Our unique conference aims to bring together researchers and practitioners to explore opportunities and challenges for intercultural relations and cross-cultural psychology in a digitally interconnected, yet increasingly divided, world. Visit our website for full information https://www.intercultural-academy.net/iair-iaccp2025.html

This newsletter will provide you with key information and important reminders about upcoming dates and events. Follow us on LinkedIn for the most frequent updates and email us at 2025@intercultural-academy.net for any queries.

Submission Extended

Head to our website to register or submit now!

Extended deadline

By popular demand the the deadline for all submissions has been extended. Any abstracts received by the 6th of Dec are now under review in consideration for early acceptance. Submit now to ensure a place in the program. Submission portal closes:

10th Jan 2025

Keynote speakers confirmed

We are pleased to introduce our incredible keynote speakers!

Professor Pat Dudgeon

Professor Dudgeon is from the Bardi people in Western Australia and holds an Australian Order of Merit. She is one of the leading experts globally on Indigenous social and emotional wellbeing and suicide prevention.

Professor Mohan Dutta

Professor Dutta is the Director of the Center for Culture-Centered Approach to Research and Evaluation (CARE). He is an expert in developing culturally-centered, community-based projects of social change.

Professor Matthew Hornsey

Professor Hornsey is an Australian Laureate and lead of the Net Zero Observatory working to accelerate action towards decarbonisation. He is a renown expert on pro-environmental behaviour and intergroup relations.

Registration Open

Register now to make the most of the early bird discounts for IACCP and IAIR members available until:

3rd Mar 2025

IAIR awards

Members of IAIR have the opportunity to nominate individuals for several prestigious awards that will be presented at the conference. Nominate your outstanding colleagues on the IAIR website for these four awards:

Lifetime Achievement

Awarded for significant contributions to the scientific and theoretical foundations of intercultural research throughout one's career.

Dissertation Award

Awarded for high quality intercultural research at the Doctoral level to honor scholarly achievement by aspiring intercultural researchers.

Early Career Award

This award recognizes individuals who have made substantial contributions to the field of intercultural relations early in their careers.

Outstanding Book

This award recognizes the best book in intercultural research written by a member of the Academy.

IACCP travel awards

IACCP members whose abstracts have been accepted are eligible to apply for a travel award. More information will be available soon, join now to receive updates. IACCP website.

IAIR Workshop/IACCP School

The joint IAIR workshop and IACCP School will take place directly before the conference at the University of Queensland. This is open to students at PhD and MSc level who intend on participating in the conference and are interested in culture and psychology. This experience provides a research-intensive and interactive experience for participants from various universities to learn from one another and to receive specialized training from experts in different fields that incorporate culture in their study of psychology. More information will be available soon!

Sponsorship

The ACAP University College is offering sponsorship for members to attend the conference. If your organisation would like to act as a sponsor, provide scholarships, or have a booth, get in touch today.

Registration for Day Tours Open

Make the most of your time in Brisbane and take advantage of a 20% off day tour for delegates with Kiff and Culture. Try a wildlife, cultural, foodie, or adventure tour. Go onto our website today under "Things to do in Brisbane" to book!

Conference Hotel Announced

Our official conference hotel is Voco, a luxurious hotel in Brisbane City Centre. Reduced room rates will be offered to delegates who have completed registration. See the "Accommodation" page of our website for more information.

Has your abstract been accepted already? We want to highlight your work on our social media and in upcoming newsletters. Email us at 2025@intercultural-academy.net if you would like to be featured.