

Kristine Quallich is currently the Assistant Superintendent in her twenty-second year serving the Medina City School District. As Assistant Superintendent, Kristine oversees curriculum and instruction, gifted education, special education, instructional technology, the business office, human resources, teacher evaluation, EMIS, and registration. Kristine also assists the Superintendent with state-mandated reporting, suspension appeals, and district policy. Prior to serving in this role, Kristine served as the Director of Pupil Services for seven years and as a school psychologist in the district for seven years. She was also a psychologist at an outpatient mental health clinic working with children, adolescents, and adults.

Kristine also currently serves as an adjunct instructor at Kent State University in the School of Lifespan Development and Educational Sciences, teaching courses in legal and ethical issues in education, educational leadership, special education leadership, and counseling. Kristine earned her bachelor's degrees from The Ohio State University in psychology and family relations and human development. She holds a doctoral degree in school psychology from Kent State University and an educational specialist's degree in K-12 Leadership from Kent State University. She holds a superintendent's license and a school psychologist's license and is also a licensed psychologist in the State of Ohio.

Kristine and her husband, Patrick, live in Medina and have three children who currently attend or graduated from Medina City Schools. She is an active volunteer in the community co-chairing the Living Well Medina County initiative, serving on the Board of the Children's Center of Medina County, and serving on many other community committees and boards including the Medina County Suicide Prevention Coalition, Family First Council, The Juvenile Detention Center Advisory Committee, University of Akron Medina County University Center Strategic Advisory Council, and the Medina County Juvenile Court Citizen Advisory Committee.