

Mary Schug-Barnhardt is currently the Director of Global Planning for Kalsec Inc., where her career path has been a winding one that has taken her into HR, International Sales, Commercial Operations, and Supply Chain. Mary has had valuable take-aways from every stop on the 22-year journey with Kalsec and has proven her versatility and leadership through successful performance in each business function.

Mary believes that women are powerful and that it is important that we are building each other up. She has become a role model to other women and is passionate about mentoring to help others reach their goals and evolve into the best version of themselves. While driven to succeed in her career, Mary's family which includes a two and a four-year-old keeps her focused on achieving a sense of balance.

Mary graduated with honors from the Michigan State University EMBA program and holds an undergraduate degree in Human Resources Management and Business from Western Michigan University.
