Piecing Directions

Lay your subcut strips in order beginning with 14 ½” rectangles down to 8 ½” rectangles. When in order you should have them in the following order:
Background (B) Accent (A)-- B B A A B B

Add a B 8 ½” strip to the bottom of a focal block. PRESS ALL SEAMS OPEN
Add a B 10 ½” strip to the left side of the block. Press
Add a A 10 ½” strip to the bottom of the block. Press
Add a A 12 ½” strip to the left side of the block. Press
Add a B 12 ½” strip to the bottom of the block. Press
Add a B 14 ½” strip to the left side of the block. Press

Sew the blocks together using the photo as a guide.

Borders:
Join 3 - 2 ½” B strips (use a straight seam only) together and fold in half.
Measure top to bottom of quilt and average the size. Cut the two strips at once and adjoin to the sides of the quilt, easing if necessary. Repeat the process and adjoin to the top and bottom of the quilt.

Join the 2 ½” A strips in the same method as above, adding to the sides and then the top and bottom.

Join 2 - 4 ½” B strips (straight seam only). Repeat to make 2 strip sets. Add to sides of the quilt in the same method as above. Join 3 - 4 ½” B strips and add to the top and bottom, as per method above.

Binding:
Join 2 ¼” A strips end to end with a diagonal seam. Press the seams open. Fold in half and press.
